

Pitfalls of newspapers

- Is the newspaper affiliated to a political party or does it profess to express a particular viewpoint?
- Who is the intended audience of the newspaper and how does this affect the way news is reported?
- More interesting events are reported because they sell more newspapers. What has disappeared from view? What did the reporter neglect to report?
- Events can be misreported, due to lack of information and a lack of time to gather the facts properly.